

New Year, New Look!

The Secaucus Public Library is excited to announce that we will be installing new carpet throughout our main building in January 2025.

Services and access to meeting rooms and other library spaces may be limited over the next few weeks as we prepare for the installation.

While the new carpet is being installed, the main library building will be closed to the public. We expect to be closed:

Monday, January 13th to Monday, February 3rd, 2025

Extended Hours for Katherine Steffens Annex at XChange during the main library's closure:

Monday to Friday: 8:30am- 8pm

Saturday: 9am-4pm

Updates about the project will be posted at secaucuslibrary.org
